DRAINAGE BILL PASSED BY SENATE

The Good Roads Bill is Sidetracked in House.

THE GOVERNOR VETOES BILLS

Jacksonville Charter Bill Veto Sustained, But Mr. Farris Will Introduce Another—Other Happenings in Both Houses of Legislature.

With all the courage of leaders who continue to battle in the face of practical assured defeat, the opposition to the new drainage bill in the Senate Friday fought the last inch of ground, but all to no avail, for when the roll was called on the final passage of the bill the drainage forces won by a score of 20 to 12. The determined opposition was very much in the nature of a surprise, as shown by the very manner in which the bill was called up. The Senate was considering the Humphries bill perfecting the existing statutes relative to violations of the local option laws and while awaiting the preparation of an amendment, Senator Crane called up his bill, stating that it could probably be disposed of in a few minutes. Senator Humphries yielded, but the minutes became longer and longer. An adjournment was taken for dinner and after that the minutes became hours and darkness had begun to envelope the earth when the vote was taken. Senator Sams voted in the affirmative and immediately after announcement of vote gave notice he would Saturday move reconsideration.

Railroad Mileage Tax.

The passage of the railroad mileage tax bill was, of course, expected, and its disposition required but a few minutes, Senators Buckman and Harris alone opposing it. The latter from the chair in explanation of his vote said in substance that he voted against the bill because Henry M. Flagler was now building in Florida a railroad that would cost $27,000,000 for the 128 miles of its construction and from which neither Henry M. Flagler nor his children, nor grandchildren nor great grandchildren could ever receive a dollar's worth of benefit, and this additional tax on this road at least, was unfair.

Revenue Bill.

The revenue bill now being engrossed is a big measure in more than one respect, though the changes in existing laws are not so great. The bill was prepared by a master hand, Senator Crill, the chairman of the committee on finance and taxation, and is also believed to fully cover defects in Florida assessment laws as indicated by a recent decision in the United States court.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 a. m., President Harris in the chair and a quorum present.

Only one new bill was introduced in the regular order, Senate bill No. 444, by Mr. Humphries—A bill to be entitled an act exempting the South Florida Loan and Trust Company of Arcadia, from the interest laws on loans made for the purpose of building upon and otherwise improving real estate on the monthly repayment plan.

Senator Humphries called up Senate bill No. 333, on table, subject to call, being a bill to be entitled an act to provide a penalty for selling intoxicating liquors, wines, beer, ale and beverages in counties or precincts voting against such, and to provide a penalty for selling liquor without first paying the license required by law in counties voting for the sale of liquors; and defining what is an intoxicating liquor or beverage in such cases; and prescribing a form of book to be kept by druggists; and to prescribe rules of evidence in such cases; and to prescribe forms of indictment and information in such cases; and defining the duties of certain officers in such cases. The bill was read in full the second time with favorable report from the committee on temperance, with amendments which were adopted together with others offered by the author of the bill and Senator Buckman. The bill was then temporarily passed, pending preparation of other amendments.

Messages from the House of Representatives were read, and House bills referred to proper committees, and Senate bills passed by the House ordered enrolled.

Report from special committee to visit insane asylum was received, ordered spread upon the journal, and 500 copies ordered printed.

The Senate then adjourned until 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Called to order at 9 a. m., Mr. Knowles in the chair. Roll call, 67 present. Prayer by chaplain. Correction of journal.

On motion of Mr. Parkinson of Volusia the rules were waived and the Senate messages were read.

Senate bill No. 438, by Mr. Sams of the Twenty-eighth—For relief of J. W. Perkins, county solicitor of Volusia county; passed under suspension of rules, on motion of Mr. Parkinson.

Governor's Veto Messages.

On motion of Mr. Melton of Duval the veto messages of the Governor were read. The first was the Farris bill amending the charter of the city of Jacksonville. The reasons assigned for the veto are that the citizens of Jacksonville already have the right to amend their own charter by popular election; the unlimited powers of the board to fix their own salaries as officers in charge of various city departments, without bonds or time limit. The unlimited powers of the board he considers unprecedented and fundamentally wrong in principle.

The veto of Mr. Faulkner's bill, fixing the terms of court of the Third judicial circuit, was read, the reason being that the veto was requested by the introducer of the bill and two Senators interested. After discussion by Mr. Register, Mr. Bradshaw and Mr. Faulkner the veto was sustained unanimously.

State Prohibition Killed.

House joint resolution No. 188, by Mr. Crawford of Orange—State prohibition amendment. Mr. Crawford invited full discussion on the question. Mr. Williams of Jackson said he had the moral courage to declare his support of everything for "God, home and native land." He spoke for a few minutes very forcefully in favor of the amendment as a Democratic measure and a moral one. Mr. Richbourg moved the previous question which was ordered. The vote was, yeas 35, nays 10. Less than the constitutional three-fifths vote, and the House refused to pass the bill.

House bill No. 546, by the committee on finance and taxation, the general appropriation bill, was read in full and discussed.

Afternoon Session.

Afternoon session was called to order by the speaker at 3 p. m. Roll call, quorum present.

The House resumed consideration of the appropriation bill. After half-hour additional discussion the new bill was ordered engrossed.

House bill No. 506, by Mr. Dupont of St. Johns, was then taken up. This bill provides that at the next general election the people shall vote on the question of moving the State capitol to some point east of the Suwannee river, and in case of an affirmative vote, the next Legislature to designate some suitable point and submit the question as a constitutional amendment for final ratification.

House bill No. 477, by Mr. Malone of Monroe—Relating to destitute lunatics, was passed, under suspension of rules.

Senate bill No. 177, by Mr. Harris—Validating and confirming all letters patent hitherto issued by the Governor and secretary of the State, creating corporations to carry on two or more separate and distinct businesses, was called up by Mr. Melton. Mr. Farris moved to place on final passage, which was agreed to, and the bill pasesd.

House bill No. 480, by Mr. Harvell of Santa Rosa—Requiring certain officers to make the reports to State auditor; passed.

Night Session.

The night session was called to order at 8 p. m. by Speaker Matthews. Roll called, quorum present.

Consideration of the good roads bills, prepared by the joint committee on public roads and highways, and Representatives MacWilliams, Parkinson, Farris, Smith and McKenzie, respectively, were all indefinitely postponed on motion of Mr. Calkins of Nassau. There was very little debate to the merits of the bills themselves, most of the discussion being on amendments.

The vote on the Smith bill was 32 to 15, and still more unfavorable on the others. There is evidently no prospect of securing any good roads legislation at this session, as the various bills covered the ground from every standpoint.

The House adjourned at 10 o'clock until 9 a. m. Saturday.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PROGRAM WAS VERY FINE

First Annual Commencement Was One of Great Interest.

PROGRAM WAS INTERESTING

The Numbers Were Well Executed, Showing Careful Training, and the Large Audience Was Delighted With Orations, Essays and Music.

One of the most delightful entertainments ever held in this city was the commencement exercises of the Gainesville Graded and High School, which occurred at the auditorium on Friday evening, and at which there was a large and representative crowd, patrons and friends of the school.

The exercises were opened by an invocation by Rev. T. J. Nixon of the Methodist church, which was followed by a song of the classes, by the high school.

Hon. Frank Clark had been invited to deliver the address, but on account of urgent business in Lake Butler, where he was summoned by telegram, this part of the program was omitted.

This was one of the most successful commencement programs ever given here. It was a program full of merit, and every individual should have credit, but space prevents. Among those outside of prize winners special mention, however, must be made of the work of Earle Kelley, Sam Mixon, Miss Lucia Patton, Earle Taylor and Jasper Malphurs, all of whom appeared in excellent condition, and who presented their various subjects in a most impressive manner.

The Program.

The following is the program of exercises carried out:

Invocation—Rev. T. J. Nixon.

Song of the classes—High School.

Violin duet—Ruby DeLand, Tom R. McBeath.

Orations by Representatives of Freshman Class—(a) "Edison," Earle Kelley; (b) "La Fayette," Joy Williams.

Essays by Representatives of Freshman Class—(a) "Mary Washington," Winnifred Pedrick.

Piano duet—Edith Bagley, Inis Thomas.

Orations by Representatives of Sophomore Class—(a) "'Stonewall' Jackson," Sam Mixon; (b) "Robert E. Lee," Earle Taylor.

Essays by Representatives of Sophomore Class—(a) "Ayesha," Lucia Patton; (b) "Victoria," Ethel Durst.

Song—"The Purple and the White," Glee Club.

Orations by Representatives of Junior Class—(a) "Washington," Jasper Malphurs; (b) "Luther," Tom R. McBeath.

Essays by Representatives of Junior Class—(a) "Isabella of Spain," Lena Hunter; (b) "Joan of Arc," Bessie Kelley.

Vocal solo—Rosabel Pedrick.

Essay—"Ancient Landmarks," Maud Lewis.

Presentation of diplomas—Dr. J. L. Kelley.

Presentation of medals—Hon. W. W. Hampton.

Song—"Good Night," Glee Club.

Judges Awarded Prizes.

The judges in the oratorical contest were Revs. T. J. Nixon and Thos. P. Hay, and Prof. J. C. Adkins. It was indeed a difficult matter to determine the best, but after consultation the gold medals were awarded to the following:

Oratory—Tom R. McBeath.

Essay—Miss Winnefred Pedrick.

Scholarship—Freshman class, Miss Annie Treadwell; Sophomore class, Misses Ethel Durst and Nannie Smith.

J. J. Finley Chapter, U. D. C., Medal—Frank Treadwell.

Miss Floy Cecil, who had compiled an excellent essay on Frances Willard, was too ill to read the same, but the principal, in excusing her, stated that it was one of the best essays on the program. The essay was not used on account of Miss Cecil's illness.

Miss Lewis Graduates.

Miss Maude Lewis of North Gainesville enjoys the distinction of being the first graduate of the Gainesville Senior High School, and Dr. J. L. Kelley, county superintendent of public instruction, took occasion to pay her a nice compliment, which was well deserved. In presenting the diploma Dr. Kelley, in his usual clever manner, said:

"For years you have been a faithful student in the Gainesville Senior High School. You have conducted yourself during this time, that you have won the confidence and esteem of your instructors, your school-mates and the admiration of the city and county officials.

"You have just cause to feel elated at your success. Permit me to inform you that we rejoice with you. For four years your eyes have been fixed on a goal and now you have reached it, and your efforts are tonight crowned with victory.

"You certainly occupy an enviable position this evening. You are the first graduate of this school and your name must stand first—at the top of this list of the alumni, which is quite a distinction and honor. The curriculum of the Gainesville High School is fully as high as some of the colleges, the faculty are equally as competent as college professors, and I am sure their work is as thorough.

"I am therefore fully persuaded that your graduation is as honorable, and will be as beneficial as it would have been had you received a diploma from a college. If we were to lay a wreathe of flowers on your forehead they would wilt and perish. In your mental accomplishments you have honors more durable. They constitute an embellishment far more resplendent than could be given by flowers, diamonds, or any outward decoration.

"I am confident that the good name of this school will be safe in your hands and that no act of yours will soil its white, or tarnish its purple.

"Commencement day is an important epoch in your life—marriage may be another—death surely will be. May the former, should it occur, be a realization of all that you justly deserve and desire. May God's choice blessings be received before and after the latter.

"Now in testimony of the confidence of the teachers and school officials it affords me much pleasure to hand you this diploma.

"May you be an honor to your parents, your school, and your country."

Comptroller Issues Call.

GREAT CONSPIRACY TO DEFRAUD THE U. S.

Millions Worth of Timber and Mineral Lands Involved.

PROMINENT MEN IN SCANDAL

Grand Juries of Half a Dozen States May Soon Have Before Them Details of a Gigantic Conspiracy to Work Upon.

Chicago, May 25.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington, D. C., says:

Amazing revelations of a conspiracy to defraud the United States of millions of dollars' worth of mineral and lumber lands will be laid before the grand juries of half a dozen states within a few days.

The frauds, it is alleged, will involve in a criminal manner the names of men high in business and political circles. They include one United States senator, one former United States senator, a man reputed to be one of the wealthiest men in world; a railroad man known from the Atlantic to the Pacific; two of the wealthiest lumber barons in the United States; and numerous other small fry, including railroad officials, coal operators and men at the head of fuel companies.

These men, whose names, for obvious reasons, cannot be made public before the grand jury acts, it is declared, will surely be indicted by the evidence, which is now in the hands of the United States district attorneys in half a dozen western states.

These frauds, it is declared, in an official quarter, extend into a number of states, including California, Colorado, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Minnesota and the two Dakotas.

TRAIN TAKES FIRE.

Excitement Among Passengers on the New York Central Railroad.

New York, May 25.—The fast Buffalo and Cleveland special on the New York Central, bound west, caugth fire Thursday night on the Park avenue viaduct.

Among the passengers were the Chicago National League baseball team and a great number of sportsmen. A woman looking out of a window overlooking the viaduct saw flames bursting from the hood over the front end of the buffet car, near the mail car. She telephoned to fire headquarters and an engine and truck met the train at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station.

The fire was smothered with ashes before it could spread to the buffet car.

The passengers were somewhat excited and most of them left the car until the fire was put out.

The train was delayed only a short time.

Shah's Father Starts Revolt.

Paris, May 25.—A dispatch from Teheran from Persia, says that Salar Dowleh, father of the Shah who recently started a revolt in Luristan province, with 15,000 followers, has advanced to Nehavend. He has sent orders to the city of Hamadan to provide him with supplies. Anxiety prevails at the palace in Teheran and troops have been hastily mustered and sent to the front.

Not Offered Presidency.

New York, May 25.—The Tribune Friday said it has learned from authoritative sources that the St. Paul report that the presidency of the Northern Pacific railroad has been offered to John F. Stevens until recently chief engineer of the Panama canal commission is without foundation.

Without Food for Four Days.

Savannah, Ga., May 25.—Abriss Garby, the captain of the fishing smack Dream, from Charleston, which was wrecked on Ossabaw island May 12, and who was given up for dead, has been rescued by a resident of the island. He had been without food or water for four days and nights when found.

Mr. Harrison owns a fine stallion, which was in the pasture. The lad approached the animal and grabbed his mane, when the stallion inflicted a deep gash with its teeth under his arm.

A physician was summoned and dressed the wound, and at last accounts the little fellow was resting as easily as could be expected under the circumstances.

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth and free from eruptions, but when the blood becomes infected with some unhealthy humor the effect is shown by rashes, eruptions, boils and pimples, or other disfiguring and annoying skin disease. The skin is provided with countless pores and glands which act as a drainage system to rid the body of impurities through the perspiration that is constantly passing through these little tubes. There are other glands that pour out on the skin an oily substance to keep it soft and pliable. When the blood becomes filled with humors and acids these are thrown off through the pores and glands, burning and irritating the skin and drying up the natural oils so that we have not only Acne, Eczema, Salt Rheum, etc., but such dry, scaly skin affections as Tetter, Psoriasis, and kindred troubles. The treatment of skin troubles with salves, washes, lotions, etc. is not along the right line. True, such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort and aids in keeping the skin clear, but it does not reach the real cause of the trouble, which are humors in the blood, and it can therefore have no real curative effect on these skin affections. S. S. S., a gentle acting and perfect blood purifier, is the best and quickest treatment. It goes down into the blood and removes the humors, fiery acids and poisons from the circulation, cools the overheated blood, and by sending a fresh stream of nourishing blood to the skin permanently cures skin diseases of every character. S. S. S. is made entirely of health producing roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Psoriasis, and all other disagreeable and unsightly eruptions of the skin. Special book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

ONE THOUSAND BILLS INTRODUCED

But Few Have Been Passed Except Local Bills.

TYLER TO BE INCORPORATED

State Auditors' Salaries Increased to $2,500 a Year—State Life Insurance Bill Special Order for Monday. Palm Beach County Bill Postponed.

One thousand bills in round numbers have been introduced in the two houses of the Forida Legislature so far this session and the number that have finally and definitely been disposed of in Senate, House and received the approval of the Governor, is extremely small in percentage. Using the basis of the total number introduced for comparison nearly all which have passed the order are purely local measures.

A hard foght battle that began Wednesday and continued Thursday, and one that is not yet finished, is that over the Knight (of Citrus) House bill, increasing salaries of cabinet officers. The preliminary skirmish in the Senate over this bill Wednesday was followed Thursday morning, the opponents scoring when the Beard amendment providing that the increase shall not go into effect until January 1, 1909, was adopted by a close vote, and a motion to reconsider this vote is now pending.

One week more and the regular session of 1907 will come to its constitutional end.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 9:30 Wednesday morning, President Harris in the chair and a quorum present.

Senate resolution No. 63, by Mr. Henderson—To rescind resolution No. 55, which provided for employment by secretary of proofreader. Committee was appointed to investigate the matter.

House bill No. 206, fixing the salaries of certain State officers, goes over pending a motion to reconsider

House bill No. 36, by Mr. Clarke of Jefferson—Providing penalty for procuring money or other thing of value on contract to perform service in the intent to defraud and to present rules of evidence in such cases. Was read the second time, perfecting amendments adopted and bill ordered to committee on engrossed bills.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapaciated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlan's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by all druggists.

Pleasant Children's Party.

Mrs. J. M. Graham, at her elegant home on West Main street N., entertained the children Wednesday afternoon complimentary to little Miss Kittie Chamberlin of Tacoma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Chamberlin, who is here as Mrs. Graham's guest.

The hours were from 4:30 to 6 o'clock, and many little folks availed themselves of the kind invitation to be present. As a result the afternoon was most delightfully spent in nursery games.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream, cake, raisins and candy were served, and late in the afternoon the children were treated to an automobile ride by the hostess, being returned to their respective homes.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

OPENING EXERCISES OF THE UNIVERSITY

Baccalaureate Sermon to be Delivered at Tabernacle Today.

SERVICE IN THE EVENING

All Services Will be Conducted in Tabernacle, and First Commencement of New University Promises to be One of Eminent Success.

From Sunday's Daily Sun.

The commencement exercises of the University of the State of Florida, the first to be held since the removal of the institution to Gainesville, began Saturday night at 8 o'clock with a debate by members of the Dixie Literary Society. This was held, as all the other exercises will be, in the Tabernacle.

The large auditorium had been very tastefully decorated. Festoons in the college colors had been hung about the walls, and long streamers ran from the sides to the dome, where they were caught in a wreathe. The wall behind the platform was decorated with red and white bunting, the colors being those of the senior class, while two silk American flags directly behind the stand added a finishing touch to the color scheme. The stage was beautifully decorated with massed plants loaned by the experiment station.

The program began with a selection rendered by the Duval Orchestra of Jacksonville. Then the secretary of the Literary Society read the following question for debate: "Resolved—Granting the Cubans desire annexation, that the United States should annex the Island of Cuba." The affirmative of the question was defended by D. S. Bryan of Dania, and Jas Kirk of Jacksonville; the negative was upheld by T. Z. Cason of Island Grove, and M. L. Moremen of Switzerland.

The debate differed in one respect from most college debates: the speakers having their facts and requirements well in mind, but not having set speeches. The audience was impressed by the fact that they were debating rather than declaiming speeches committed to memory.

The judges of the debate were the Rev. Dr. Jameson of Mercer University, Rev. F. H. Craighill, and Mr. W. W. Hampton of Gainesville. The decision was in favor of the affirmative.

The three or four selections rendered by the Duval Orchestra added a great deal to the enjoyment of the evenng.

Today's Program.

The program for today promises to prove of unusual interest. The services will comprise the baccalaureate sermon by Rev. S. Y. Jameson, D. D., president of Mercer University, Athens, Ga., and one of the most eloquent preachers in the South. It is quite an honor that Dr. Jameson consented to come for this special work, through the invitation of Dr. Andrew Sledd, and his presence is appreciated.

The service, which will begin at 10:30 this morning, will be opened by an invocation by Rev. T. J. Nixon of the First Methodist church. This will be followed by the hymn, "Come, Thou Almighty King," after which the sermon will be delivered. After the sermon there will be another hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," which will be followed by prayer by Rev. Thos. P. Hay, followed by singing of doxology and benediction.

The Evening Service.

In the evening a sermon will be delivered by Rev. Thos. P. Hay of the First Presbyterian church to the Y. M. C. A. The services, however, will be opened with an invocation by Rev. S. Y. Jameson, followed by a hymn, "O Worship the King All Glorious Above." This service will be concluded by prayer by Rev. W. F. Yocum, the singing of the doxology and benediction.

The Work for Monday.

Monday will be a particular interesting day on the program of exercises, as there has been a most interesting and instructive list mapped out for that day. This will be the declamation contest of the freshman-sophomore classes, and the subjects selected are of the highest order.

The exercises will begin at the Tabernacle at 10 a. m., and the program will be as follows:

Mr. J. H. Vidal, "Regulus to the Roman Senate"—Kellogg.

Mr. W. Martin, "Henry Grady"—Graves.

Mr. N. Barrs, "Consolidation"—Grady.

Mr. W. W. Gibbs, "Visions of War"—Ingersoll.

Music.

Mr. S. S. Smith, "Spartadus to the Gladiators"—Kellogg.

Mr. J. Kirk, "The Nation's Responsibilities"—McKinley.

Mr. O. R. Albright, "The American Republic"—Phillips.

Mr. S. E. Jenkins, Eulogy on Washington—Henry Lee.

Music.

Decision of judges.

Tuesday's Program.

The concluding exercises will be held Tuesday morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. These will be the graduating exercises, and the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Dr. Andrew Sledd, president of the University, followed by the conferring of medals and degrees.

The public is cordially invited to all exercises.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

Since making our announcement that we would close our banking business to take effect on June 15th, 1907, we have sold our building, fixtures and vaults to W. R. Thomas, G. K. Broome, H. F. Dutton, C. W. Chase, J. H. Vidal, S. J. Thomas and J. B. Padgett, well-known business men in this city and county, who will organize a banking company to be conducted in this building. In order that there may be no discontinuance of the banking business in this building, we have decided to continue our business until the organization of the new company and we respectively ask our friends and patrons who have so kindly done business with us to continue their business with the new firm. It will be managed by wise and conservative business men whom we have known in a business way for years, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage. The only really undesirable citizens nowadays are the umpires that go back on the home team.

Daily bulletins from Madrid indicate that King Alfonso is getting along as well as could be expected.

The report is denied that the Pacific Coast people are waiting to attend the Jamestown Exposition by way of Panama canal.

A Kentucky dairyman has been caught selling milk with minnows in it. He should be more particular about his water supply.

All the Republicans of Ohio are determined to have harmony in the party, but most of them seem to realize they must fight for it.

They are thinking of naming one of the new battleships Utah. We presume it will always be accompanied by a plurality of consorts.

Senator Platt says he wishes to be left alone in order that he "may enjoy life in the flat he has taken." The Senator must be pretty much of an optimist, after all, to imagine he can enjoy life in a flat.

Speaker Cannon has been nominated for Presidency by the Republicans of the Illinois Legislature and Fairbanks has nominated himself and Boss Cox has nominated Taft. Are the people to have nothing to say about who they want?

The department of Justice has announced its intention of instituting proceedings in a few days against the powder trust whose head is Dupont, the new Senator from Delaware. The Bureau of Corporations has been hard at work investigating the operations of this trust for months past, and has discovered that not only has it been powerful enough to almost completely stifle competition, but that it now has the Government entirely at its mercy and in case of war could exact any price that it chose for the powder necessary to the country's defense. Whatever is the outcome of the prosecution, it is almost assured that the Government will establish a number of factories of its own for service manufacture.

The bill introduced by Representative McKenzie appropriating $5,000 for a statue of Florida's great citizen and statesman, Stephen R. Mallory, the statue to be Florida's contribution to the national statuary hall, will meet the approval of all Floridians. The appropriation will be sure to pass, and Florida, one of the few States not represented, will then place before the people of the world in the nation's capital the effigy of her favorite son. Stephen R. Mallory was an illustrious representative of the South in the bygone days so dear to memory. He served his State and the Southern Confederacy with unswerving faithfulness and devotion, having represented the former in the Senate and the latter as secretary of the navy. It is pleasant to think of our great men of the past, and their glorious deeds should ever be held up for the admiration and emulation of succeeding generations.—Tampa Tribune.

CONSTITUTIONAL DEBATE.

The magazine debate between Mr. Bryan and Senator Beveridge on the constitutionality question of the reserved rights of the States and incidentally of the Beveridge bill to regulate labor in factories, known as the child labor bill, has been generally read. To Democrats the discussion is of transcendent interest, for it foreshadows a much more important debate within the Democratic party on the issues of State rights and home rule. The first installment comes from Senator Rayner of Maryland in The Baltimore Sun of May 13, in which he summarizes the policies advocated by Mr. Bryan as follows:

"First—Ultimate ownership by the Government of all the interstate railroads of the United States.

"Second—The initiative and referendum.

"Third—Congress to have the right to arbitrarily fix the total product of all interstate corporations, quasi public and private, and to destroy their business if they transgress the congressional limit.

"Fourth—The supreme power of Congress to prescribe the terms upon which all interstate commerce shall be conducted, and whenever Congress (which, of course, means the dominant party) conceives it to be against public policy, it shall have the right absolutely to prohibit commercial intercourse between the States upon the interdicted article (as fully exemplified in the provisions of the child labor bill.)

"My own deliberate judgment is that if we embody these doctrines in a Democratic platform the next step that it will be necessary to take will be to change the name of the party and revive the name of 'Federalists' or take some other title suitable to the occasion; and then, after we have done this, the final step will be, with our leaders in the van, in solemn procession to accompany the remains of democracy to their resting place, and when we are engaged in performing the last sad rights and obsequies, and are commemorating her departed virtues, do not let us forget to recount the tragic manner of her death, so that prosperity shall know that in the hour of her brightest hopes and most alluring prospects, determined to end her great historic career, she threw herself upon the poisoned weapon of Federal Centralization, and died of a self-inflicted wound."

Democratic voters will have to decide these issues before they elect and instruct delegates to the next national convention and to do so must investigate the arguments on both sides to arrive at a just conclusion. Mr. Bryan has so clearly stated his case that it is not necessary to repeat it. Senator Rayner's summary has led The Baltimore Sun to say:

"The discussion of all these theories of government; the suggestion of Secretary Root that the constitution be changed by construction so as to deprive the States of their reserved rights; the Beveridge bill and Mr. Bryan's doctrines—all these things have tended to direct public attention to questions of policy and constitutional law which have been dormant almost during this generation. Such a masterly exposition as that of Senator Rayner, by so profound a student of the constitution as he is, will do much to bring people back to the old path."

FROM ST. AUGUSTINE RECORD.

The following taken from the report of the recent Episcopal Convention held in this city as it appeared in The St. Augustine Record is much appreciated and is published so that the people of Gainesville can see what the delegates from the Ancient City thought of us:

"Gainesville was characteristically lavish in her hospitality to the clergy and delegates and to the delegates to the Woman's Auxiliary which met at the same time as the council. Through the courtesy of Gainesville parish the visitors were taken in carriages to the State University and all the interesting places in and near the city.

"Mention should not be omitted of the magnificent new Holy Trinity church in which the council held its sessions. This structure, when fully completed, will be one of the finest church edifices in the entire South and Holy Trinity rector, Rev. Francis H. Craighill, and his congregation are to be congratulated on being able to worship in such a church.

"Gainesville has set a moral standard unequalled by any other town or city in Florida."

FARMERS SHOULD DIVERSIFY.

Make your farms self-sustaining. Self-preservation is the first law of nature, applying equally to man and beast. When you have provided an acreage of diversified crops sufficient to meet the demands of the home supply it would then be proper to consider the extent of the money crop. Reduce the cost of labor through the use of the latest and most approved farming implements. Rotate your crops, plow deep, harrow and roll your lands. Increase the fertility of the soil, supply needed humus, and improve its mechanical condition by growing leguminous plants wherever they can be sown or cultivated. Institute a systematic method of increasing the composit heap, and cut down the heavy bills for commercial fertilizers.

The legume and compost heap should be the farmer's most highly-prized bank account. With their assistance he can at once commence to travel the inviting road to independence and wealth. Without them he must continue to look for help only from costly sources. The time is not far distant when we hope to see that fulfillment of prosperity on the farm which is so much to be desired. We are glad to see every department of business in the commercial world prosper, but not at the expense of the farmers. Let the farmers work out their independence without fear or trembling, gradually abolishing the credit system from the future conduct of their business.

The New York World pretends to have reliable information that Thomas Fortune Ryan of Virginia is in the field as a candidate for the Presidency. The grounds upon which this information is based are not exposed, but it is incidentally mentioned that, among other elements of his strength, is the strong Catholic following he would undoubtedly command. This is a very slender reed and has never before been pleaded in behalf of any candidate, except in the memorable instance of Chief Justice Roger Brooks Taney, in whose case it proved fatal. Any student of our politics knows that religion is a thing quite apart from party allegiance, and that any pretense of privilege depending upon church influence must inevitably arouse wide resentment. Considered from this point of view, the announcement in The World may be regarded as an attack on Ryan's availability, although his church connections are not quoted against him, nor is it clear from anything revealed in The World's exposure that he is in fact a candidate. If he is in truth a candidate, some more substantial grounds than those given by The World must be found for him to stand upon. The history of the efforts of the friends and admirers of Chief Justice Roger Brooks Taney in the same field of endeavor in which The World now says Mr. Ryan is active, is commended to the enthusiastic friends of the ambitious Virginian.

It has been settled by the party in power that Oklahoma and Indian Territory are not to come into the Union as a State till after the next Presidential election, if then. It is purely a matter of politics. Three or four Democratic Representatives and two Democratic Senators are not wanted at the capitol, and there are plenty of good reasons why they will not get there. Fault is found with the constitution that Oklahoma has adopted. It is said to be too radical and too hard on corporations. This is a remarkable complaint from a "trust-busting" administration. Then it is claimed that the State has been Gerrymandered so that it will never be anything but Democratic. It takes a pretty fair sprinkling of voters to Gerrymander a State in the first place, and if this has been done, which is open to question, it is no more than what was done in the case of Ohio, and other States, but that was in the interests of the other party. Anyhow the fate of Oklahoma is settled for some time to come. The constitution cannot be adopted without executive approval, and it has been settled by the party leaders that this shall not be given.

"Gentleman" Jack O'Brien seems to have met the same finish that comes to all men who try to combine the business of being gentlemen and prizefighters.

Only one more week and the 1907 session of the Florida Legislature will be history.

R. B. WEEKS, Chn. B. P. I.
Attest: J. L. KELLEY, Sec. and Supt. B. P. I.

What Florida should have in her next Governor is a man of education sufficient to use the English language correctly and address himself intelligently to any and all public questions of State. A man who has been used to thought, study and action along lines of great public moment. A man of mental power. A man of public experience. A man of absolute moral character and uprightness, not only in his own person but in his ideas. A man who would not debase himself nor degrade the high office of Governor, or a lower office of any sort, by bribery, vote buying, whiskey treating, or any other low-down, slum method of gaining a political victory. In fact, a man who will stand the peer of any Governor of any State in the Union, whom we shall not be ashamed of or make apoligies for. Is there any such man around here? Let him stand up and show himself.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

There were 3,014 breakages of rails on the principal railroads in New York during the three months ending March 31. Most of the breakages were in rails rolled since 1899, which would point to the steel trust as the chief culprit. Is the tariff protected trust to be allowed to charge the highest possible price for steel rails and at the same time manufacture them more imperfectly than its predecessors used to? If the tariff was abolished or reduced so that competition would ensue, the price of rails would be lowered and the quality better.

The shell road now going down between DeLand and Daytona will be a big advertisement for Volusia county. There is nothing like having a progressive board of county commissioners. Alachua is building hard roads also.

BACK TO GEORGIA.

White Man, Accused of Larceny After Trust, Taken to Scene of Action.

W. C. Mixon, the white man who has been living peaceably with his family near Gainesville for more than a year, and who was arrested by Sheriff Fennell Saturday night upon a charge preferred by Georgia authorities for larceny after trust, was taken Thursday afternoon to Georgia, where it is said he is guilty.

An officer came from Georgia to accompany the prisoner back to the scene of his alleged crime. Mr. Mixon has been living within three miles of Gainesville, where he has been engaged in farming, for the past year or more. He has always been peaceable and law-abiding here, and his friends are under the impression that there must be something wrong in his arrest. His family are still on the farm near the city.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

Since making our announcement that we would close our banking business to take effect on June 15th, 1907, we have sold our building, fixtures and vaults to W. R. Thomas, G. K. Broome, H. F. Dutton, C. W. Chase, J. H. Vidal, S. J. Thomas and J. B. Padgett, well-known business men in this city and county, who will organize a banking company to be conducted in this building. In order that there may be no discontinuance of the banking business in this building, we have decided to continue our business until the organization of the new company and we respectively ask our friends and patrons who have so kindly done business with us to continue their business with the new firm. It will be managed by wise and conservative business men whom we have known in a business way for years, and we bespeak for them a liberal patronage. As advised in our circular letter of the 18th, all checks will be paid without interruption, and certificates of deposits redeemed, with interest, on presentation.

A CLEVER POEM.

Tom R. McBeath Made a Clever Hit at Entertainment Last Week.

The Sun has already contained mention of the fact that the Junior Class of the Gainesville Graded and High School entertained their classes and friends at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Tom F. McBeath on Friday evening of the past week.

The program was one of unusual merit, but the poem of Tom R. McBeath, which is overflowing with wit and good humor, is especially worthy of merit, and after considerable persuasion the author has permitted its publication, which is as follows:

JUNIOR CLASS POEM. THE CLASS OF '08.

Kind friends, I'm glad to greet you, but would say in this connection,
I wasn't born a poet, but was made one by election.
So, pass by my imperfection, and for errors do not hunt,
And your sympathies extend me while I do my little stunt,
Which is, on your mental canvas to draw you, while you wait,
A true and faithful picture of the Class of 1908.

There's an even dozen of us, if you reckon us by number;
But should you wish to count us as the millmen measure lumber,
It may strike you as peculiar—may even make you laugh—
But as told by size we're only just eleven and a half;
While as regards our gender—and perhaps that's why we shine
So very, very brilliant—we are two-thirds feminine.
And so, without more preface, half in earnest, half in fun,
I'll trot them out before you, and present them one by one.

First of all comes Bonnie Bessie with her tall and queenly air,
Who leads her class as naturally as some girls bang their hair;
Who takes to mathematics as a kitten takes to milk,
But who, everywhere you take her, is just as fine as silk.

And next comes Kate, our sunbeam, a regular little fairy,
Who never borrows trouble, but who's always bright and merry.
But the way she can crib answers, and also, when she wishes,
Get all around her teachers, is a sin to little fishes.
She's authority on history, and in Latin reads 'em some,
But her specialty's the science and the art of chewing gum.

The next is Lena. She's our pride, our model little woman;
She can write like Lucy Larcome, and read Latin like a Roman;
She's a favorite with her teachers, and always does her work
With diligence and patience, and was never known to shirk.
But once just get her rattled—O Jordan's stormy Strand!
She can surely tune up for you, and bawl to beat the band.

The next in line is Mattie B., to all her classmates dear;
She's just our good big sister, and we all look up to her;
She stands high in our opinion, six feet; but that's not all,
She's every bit as good and kind and true as she is tall.

There's Annie next, our beauty; and we challenge any class
To show a better looker; for there never was a glass
Flashed back a prettier picture when the softest light was o'er it,
Than she sees in her mirror when she smiling stands before it.
But I wouldn't have you thinking all her good points go to looks,
The class has not a member that is brighter in her books.

The next is Mattie May, a girl as good as gold all through;
She's studious, kind 'o sober, but loyal, firm and true,
And will someday walk a woman amid the world's great crowd,
Of whom her high school classmates will evermore be proud.

There's Gladys next, a Northern rose transplanted to the South;
You'd hardly think that butter would melt within her mouth;
She's such a mild say-nothing, so timid and demure
That she's got the rabbits faded—but don't you be too sure!
Just mention to her chummies how reserved she is, and shy,
Then watch 'em kind 'o giggle and wink the other eye!

And last of all, the sisters—but only least in that
There's barely fifty inches twixt her shoe-heels and her hat—
Is Heloise, our brilliant and winsome little lass,
Who masters all her studies—and bosses all her class.
She's a lightning calculator, and can tell you to a minute,
When she sees a bag of peanuts just how many there are in it.

The boys come next. There's Jasper, who though, as you all know,
Would never take a premium at a first-class beauty show,
Is a sturdy, staunch good fellow, and for all he keeps it dark,
High up on Fame's white pillar intends to make his mark;
Who, though he may not get there first, when he decides to try,
You can set it down as certain, will get there by and by.

There's Douglas with a tendency to project with machines,
And a turn for electricity, and who most surely means
Some day to beat Marconi, and snatch the wreath of fame
From off the brow of Edison to deck his own fair name.

And then there's model Wiley, as timid as a rabbit;
Who hasn't, as we know of, one single, lone bad habit;
And who, if life is spared him, will some day never fear,
Climb high up Fortune's ladder as a civil engineer.

Then I make up the dozen—or to speak with more precision,
I'm what you have left over after making this division.

So here we are before you, the pick of all the State.
O there's nothing that can match us, The Class of 1908!
"And after graduation, what?" O, we'll have no time to tarry;
Each boy will have to hunt a job; each girl, a man to marry.

THURSDAY'S WORK AT STATE CAPITOL

Many Measures of Importance Passed, Some With Opposition.

BOTH HOUSES ARE BUSY

The Legislature is Now Rushing to Dispose of the Large Number of Bills in Consideration, in an Endeavor to Avoid an Extra Session.

The Senate, notwithstanding resolutions adopted, has not yet begun night sessions, though a strong but unsuccessful effort was made Thursday prior to adjournment to enforce this resolution. The House, however, began its three sessions a day Thursday.

The new drainage bill of Senator Crane, which passed the ordeal of second reading Thursday, has, with its amendment offered by the author, been engrossed.

The House adopted a resolution introduced by Mr. Reese of Escambia commending the course of the trustees of the internal improvement fund in contesting the suits of the railroad and land grant companies for swamp and overflowed lands.

The House unanimously passed Senator Cone's bill providing that the State Board of Education deed to the city of Lake City for educational purposes the old State University property and appropriating $15,000 to be paid to the city of Lake City, which is to give a receipt in full for all claims in connection with the University against the State.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Senate was called to order at 9 a. m., President Harris in the chair and a quorum present.

In the regular order there were no new resolution or bills introduced.

In conformity with the notice given Wednesday, Senator Adams moved that the vote be reconsidered, by which was adopted an amendment to the Knight (of Citrus) increased salary bill, providing that such increase be not effective until 1909, or after the expiration of the terms of the present incumbents of these offices. On roll call the motion to reconsider the vote was lost, 13 to 18. Senator Beard then moved indefinite postponement of the bill. Senator Adams raised the point of order that the bill was not under consideration but simply on reconsideration of vote. The president ruled the point not well taken and roll call was ordered and the bill was indefinitely postponed by vote of 20 to 11.

Senate bill No. 211, by Mr. Crane—Amending Section 2072, general statutes relating to dockets to be kept by justices of the peace, read second time and ordered engrossed.

The hour for the special order having arrived, this order being Senate bill No. 421, by Mr. Crane, known as the drainage bill. The bill was read in full the second time, Senator Adams in the chair, and a number of amendments offered. The bill was ordered engrossed.

House bill No. 302, by Mr. Faulkner of Taylor—Providing method for discovery of illicit sale of intoxicating liquors, to punish false swearing and to arrest the vendor making such illicit sale, was read the second time, with amendment, which was adopted, and the bill ordered printed and advanced to third reading, and made a special order for Monday at 10 a. m.

Senate bill No. 409, by Mr. Crane—Creating Florida State Board of Dental Examiners, and regulating practice of dentistry and dental surgery in the State, was read in full the second time and ordered advanced on calendar to third reading.

An amendment was adopted to House bill No. 173, relating to organized militia, which increases the salary of the adjutant-general to $2,500, and the bill was ordered to committee on engrossed bills.

The hour for special order having arrived, Senate bill No. 404, by Mr. Massey—Imposing license taxes on railroad companies, was read in full the second time. The bill provides a tax of $10 a mile on all railway trackage as a State tax in place of all other State and county taxes on railway companies. The bill was ordered to engrossing committee from which it will go to calendar for bills on third reading and be made special order for Friday at 4 p. m.

Early Summer Sale at Hyde's.

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions, the store of the G. W. Hyde Company was crowded all day Saturday, the opening day of their Great Early Summer Sale. The very fact that the store was crowded, inasmuch as they were delayed in getting out their circulars for the sale, is evidence that what few did get them responded promptly and no doubt told their friends of this sale. They are offering some very low prices on their different lines of dry goods. To one that knows the condition of the cotton market their prices are rediculously low, but you must remember the G. W. Hyde Company are in position to handle the output of the average mill and in many cases can name their own prices and when they get a good thing their customers are sure to share in it.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
